16. Dispute Resolution and Agreement to Arbitrate all Disputes

16.1. International Arbitration; Federal Arbitration Act

PLEASE READ CAREFULLY. THIS PROVISION REQUIRES U.S. USERS TO RESOLVE MOST DISPUTES THROUGH BINDING ARBITRATION OUTSIDE THE UNITED STATES AND WAIVES THE RIGHT TO A COURT TRIAL OR JURY TRIAL.

16.2. Agreement to Arbitrate

16.3. You and 3-102-959790 Limited Liability Company, agree that any dispute, claim, or controversy arising out of or relating to these Terms of Service, the Services, Sweepstakes Rules, your account, or your relationship with the Company—including disputes concerning the formation, interpretation, performance, breach, termination, validity, or enforceability of these Terms—will be resolved by final and binding arbitration, rather than in court, except as expressly provided below.

16.4. This arbitration agreement involves interstate and international commerce and will be governed by the Federal Arbitration Act, 9 U.S.C. §§ 1–16, including its applicable provisions concerning international arbitration and the recognition and enforcement of arbitration agreements and awards. To the extent applicable, the arbitration will also be governed by the Convention on the Recognition and Enforcement of Foreign Arbitral Awards of 1958, as implemented by Chapter 2 of the Federal Arbitration Act, 9 U.S.C. §§ 201–208.

16.5. Foreign Seat and Location of Arbitration

16.6. The legal seat and juridical place of arbitration will be the Republic of Costa Rica, outside the United States. The arbitration will be administered in San Jose, Costa Rica, unless the parties agree otherwise or the arbitrator determines that proceedings should be conducted remotely. The fact that hearings may be conducted by telephone, videoconference, or other electronic means will not change the foreign seat of arbitration.

16.7. Arbitration Rules and Language

16.8. The arbitration will be administered by the Centro de Conciliación y Arbitraje de la Cámara de Comercio de Costa Rica (“CCA”) under its applicable international arbitration rules in effect when the arbitration is commenced, except as modified by this agreement. The arbitration will be conducted by one neutral arbitrator appointed under those rules. The language of the arbitration will be English. The arbitrator may award any remedy available under applicable law in an individual action, including injunctive or declaratory relief, but may not award relief unavailable under these Terms or applicable law.

16.9. Authority of the Arbitrator

16.10. The arbitrator will have authority to determine disputes concerning the interpretation, applicability, enforceability, or formation of this arbitration agreement, including any claim that this agreement or any portion of it is invalid or void, except to the extent applicable law requires a court to decide the issue.

16.11. Individual Arbitration; No Class Actions

16.12. To the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, arbitration will be conducted only on an individual basis. You and the Company agree that neither party will:

- bring or participate in a class, collective, consolidated, mass, or representative action;
- seek relief on behalf of or against any other person; or
- consolidate or combine an arbitration with another arbitration without the written consent of all affected parties.

16.13. The arbitrator may award relief only to the individual party seeking relief and only to the extent necessary to resolve that party’s individual claim. If this limitation is found unenforceable as to a particular claim or remedy, that claim or remedy will proceed in a court of competent jurisdiction, and the remaining claims will proceed in individual arbitration to the fullest extent permitted by law.

16.14. Notice and Informal Resolution

16.15. Before initiating arbitration, the party asserting a claim must provide written notice describing the dispute and the relief requested. Notice to the Company must be sent to:

3-102-959790 Limited Liability Company

Province 01 San José, Canton 02 Escazú, San Rafael, Fuentecantos Building, First Floor, Office Number One

16.16. The parties will attempt in good faith to resolve the dispute informally for 30 days after receipt of the notice, unless applicable law prohibits or limits this requirement.

16.17. Costs and Access

16.18. The Company will pay or reimburse arbitration fees and costs to the extent required by applicable law or the applicable arbitration rules. The Company will not require a U.S. consumer to travel internationally for an in-person hearing unless the consumer voluntarily agrees or the arbitrator determines that the arrangement is reasonable and legally permissible. Hearings may be conducted remotely where appropriate.

16.19. Each party will bear its own attorneys' fees and expenses unless the arbitrator or applicable law provides otherwise.

16.20. Court Proceedings Related to Arbitration

16.21. The parties agree that courts located in San Jose, Costa Rica will have jurisdiction over proceedings relating to the appointment or removal of an arbitrator, provisional or conservatory measures, and the recognition, confirmation, enforcement, or annulment of an arbitration award, subject to applicable law.

16.22. An arbitration award may be recognized and enforced in any court having jurisdiction over a party or its property, including courts in the United States under the Federal Arbitration Act and the New York Convention.

16.23. Either party may seek temporary or provisional relief from a court of competent jurisdiction when necessary to preserve the status quo, prevent irreparable harm, protect confidential information or intellectual property, or preserve assets pending arbitration. Seeking such relief will not waive the obligation to arbitrate.
